The shares were purchased from Hudson Resources Limited (ASX: HRS).

The consideration for the acquisition was A$3,051,000 or 13.5 cents a share.

Mr Mick Aw, Chairman of ICP, explained the rationale for the acquisition, "This significant position in Tiaro Coal is based on our evaluation of various potential business opportunities based on the specific merits of each available deal. The acquisition is in line with ICP's strategy to capitalise on viable business opportunities, which can enhance ICP's shareholders' value.

"ICP regards the acquisition as an opportunity to participate in the Australia coal exploration and mining industry and considers Tiaro Coal a compelling investment.

"The acquisition will also be a catalyst for a strategic relationship with China Qinfa Group Limited (Qinfa), a group that has coal trading and coal mining assets in China, which may bring further opportunities in the development of coal resources across Asia and Australia."

Dan Buckley, Tiaro Coal's Managing Director welcomes ICP's entry into Tiaro Coal, "We are heartened by the confidence shown by ICP. We are confident that with such formidable support, Tiaro Coal will be able to move forward with its plans to develop a viable coking-PCI coal mine in Queensland."
