

Solomon Islands High Court Trial Ends

The trial has finished in the Solomon Islands High Court case 258/11 between SMM Solomon Limited ("Sumitomo") and others v Axiom KB Limited ("Axiom" or "the Company") Solomon Islands Government and others.

Commissioner John Brown has reserved his judgment. The judgment is anticipated to be delivered before the end of September 2014.

The Company was pleased at the presentation of its case including the delivery of its final submissions last week.

ENDS

About Axiom Mining Limited

Axiom Mining Limited focuses on tapping into the resource potential within the mineral-rich Pacific Rim. Through dedication to forging strong bonds and relationships with the local communities and governments where we operate, Axiom Mining has built a diversified portfolio of exploration tenements in the Asia Pacific region. This includes a majority interest in the Isabel nickel deposits in the Solomon Islands. The Company also owns all or majority holdings in Vietnam's Quang Tri gold project and highly prospective gold silver and copper tenements in North Queensland, Australia. The Company is listed on the ASX.

For more information on Axiom Mining and details on our activities, please refer to our company website at www.axiom-mining.com.

Disclaimer

Statements in this document that are forward-looking and involve numerous risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from expected results are based on the Company's current beliefs and assumptions regarding a large number of factors affecting its business. There can be no assurance that (i) the Company has correctly measured or identified all of the factors affecting its business or their extent or likely impact; (ii) the publicly available information with respect to these factors on which the Company's analysis is based is complete or accurate; (iii) the Company's analysis is correct; or (iv) the Company's strategy, which is based in part on this analysis, will be successful.