

14 July 2014

Update on strategic review of Infratil Energy Australia assets

The strategic review process of Infratil Energy Australia continues with a range of parties expressing interest in progressing options including outright purchase and merger combinations. Parties have been selected to progress to the next stage of the process which is scheduled to conclude in early September, after which the preferred strategic option will be selected.

Marko Bogoevski
Chief Executive Officer
Infratil Limited