

ASX Announcement - Quantum Energy Limited (QTM)

Quantum Health Group - Medical Business Acquisitions

18th July 2014 - John Walstab

Quantum Energy Limited (ASX: QTM) is pleased to announce a further boost to its Quantum Health Group business with the purchase of two medical distribution businesses based in Thailand and Korea, both these acquisitions are through our subsidiary Quantum Healthcare P/L (QHC). These strategic acquisitions together with the Quantum Health Group's existing companies InSight Oceania P/L and Quantum Healthcare P/L strengthen our foundation in the global healthcare market.

Quantum Healthcare Thailand Co Ltd (QHT) formally Medithai Korea Co Ltd) is a successful Thailand medical equipment business specialising in women's health and radiology imaging markets. QHT is a distributor for Samsung and Samsung-Medison healthcare products throughout Thailand. Consideration for the acquisition includes a cash component, 4% of total Ordinary Shares in Quantum Healthcare P/L and ongoing payments based future performance of QHT. QHT will expand its market penetration into High-end radiology markets with synergies within the Quantum Health Group.

Oncology Imaging Systems Korea Co Ltd (OTS) – a market leading Korean distribution business focussing on high-technology cancer treatment equipment in Korean hospitals and universities. OTS is the distributor for Accuray's Cyberknife and Tomotherapy cancer treatment systems and other leading oncology related products. The consideration for this acquisition includes a cash component, 4% of the total Ordinary Shares in Quantum Healthcare P/L and ongoing payments based future OTS performance. OTS has plans for further growth with complementary products in existing and new markets with Quantum Health Group's product portfolio.

Both businesses will be fully consolidated into Quantum Energy Limited financial statements from the acquisition date of 18 July 2014.
