

ASX Announcement

4 September 2014

Invigor Digital Solutions signs development contract with The Australia Traffic Network

Invigor Group Limited (ASX: IVO) ("Invigor") advises that Invigor Digital Solutions has entered into a development contract with The Australia Traffic Network ("ATN") to assist ATN with its digital commerce strategy.

Mr Gary Cohen, Executive Chairman, welcomed the contract saying: "We are pleased to have entered into this significant arrangement with ATN. Development of the application will assist ATN to use data to deliver business intelligence and insights for its activities. The contract further enhances Invigor Digital Solutions as a leading provider of business intelligence products assisting companies better analyse their performance and customer needs."

For further information, please contact:

Gary Cohen,
Executive Chairman
Invigor Group Limited
Ph: +61 2 8251 9600

About Invigor Group Limited

Invigor Group is a leading information technology and digital solutions company. It specialises in innovative business intelligence, big data solutions which are supported by strategic consulting, development and marketing services. Invigor delivers its products and services across a broad range of industries including: consumer electronics, automotive, financial and insurance, pharmaceuticals, apparel and home wares.

About The Australia Traffic Network

The Australia Traffic Network ("ATN") is a member of Global Traffic Network, a leading provider of traffic and news reports to radio and television stations outside the United States of America. ATN provides the Australian public with up to date traffic reports which can be heard on numerous media affiliates across the country.