

Axiom Mining management team continues to grow

Axiom Mining Limited ("Axiom" or "the Company") is pleased to announce another key appointment—Chief Financial Officer Mr Sailesh Solanki.

Axiom CEO Mr Ryan Mount said, "With drilling progressing well on our West Guadalcanal Project and a judgment imminent on the Solomon Islands litigation over the Isabel nickel deposit, Axiom is poised to enter a new phase in our company history.

"It is important we position ourselves for accelerated growth with the appointment of talented senior managers to guide the Company's development."

Mr Mount said Mr Solanki is an experienced finance executive who has a track record in financial leadership for publicly listed mining companies with operations in the Melanesian Pacific islands, making him a perfect fit for Axiom as the Company focuses on developing its Solomon Islands operations.

Mr Solanki has spent most of his recent career with Allied Gold Limited as Group Finance Manager, where he managed their Solomon Islands and Papua New Guinea (PNG) finance functions as well as ASX reporting requirements.

He was at Emperor Mines Limited for more than 10 years, where he implemented financial systems in Fiji and PNG, and he also managed the finance and treasury operations for Intrepid Mines Limited through a massive growth phase.

Mr Solanki is a Certified Public Accountant and holds a Bachelor of Business Studies (Accounting).
