5. Adoption of remuneration report

Shareholders are requested to adopt the Company's remuneration report.

In addition, at all listed company's annual general meetings, a resolution that the remuneration report be adopted must be put to a members vote BUT the vote on the resolution is advisory only and does not bind the directors or the company. However, under the Corporations Act 2001, if 25% or more of the votes that casted for this resolution voted against the adoption of the Remuneration Report at two consecutive AGMs, shareholders will be required to vote at the second of those AGMs on a resolution (a "spill resolution") that another meeting be held within 90 days at which certain directors of the Company must go up for re-election.

Company's remuneration report

The Company's remuneration report is set out on pages 20 to 22 of the 2014 annual report, which is available on the website www.aberdeenasset.com.au. In summary, the Company's remuneration report:

- a) describes the policies behind the remuneration arrangements of the Company and the link between the remuneration of directors of the Company and the Company's performance; and
- b) sets out the remuneration arrangements in place for each director of the Company.

A reasonable opportunity for discussion of the remuneration report will be provided at the Meeting. The vote on this resolution is ADVISORY ONLY and does not bind the directors or the Company.

Recommendation
