NEWS RELEASE

Delisting and Cancellation of Securities from the London Stock Exchange

AngloGold Ashanti Limited ("AngloGold" or "the Company") announces that, further to its announcement on 18 August 2014 and following an application by AngloGold to the UK Listing Authority, the listing of the Company's ordinary shares and depository interests of ZAR 0.25 each (ISIN: ZAE000043485) (together, the "Securities") on the Official List was cancelled with effect from 8.00 am on Monday, 22 September 2014 (the "Delisting Date"). The Securities ceased to be admitted to trading on the Main Market of the London Stock Exchange plc with effect from the same time.

The Company's stock will continue to be traded on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange ("JSE"), the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"), the Ghana Stock Exchange (the "GhSE") and Australian Securities Exchange (the "ASX").

The Company's depository interest programme will terminate with effect from 15 October 2014 (the "DI Programme Termination Date"). Any depository interests held on the Company's UK depository interest register on the DI Programme Termination Date will be replaced on or shortly after the DI Programme Termination Date with the equivalent number of fully paid ordinary shares in the Company and such holdings will be entered onto the Company's Jersey register.

It is the intention of the Company that the Jersey register will remain open for approximately 12 months from the Delisting Date. For further information regarding the Jersey register, please contact Computershare Investor Services PLC at the address or on the telephone number below.

Holders of ordinary shares on the Jersey register will, until the date of closure of the Jersey register, be able to trade their shares on any of the exchanges on which the Company is listed, however, the most liquid exchanges for the company's stock are the JSE and the NYSE. It is expected that holders of ordinary shares on the Jersey register will, until the date of closure of the Jersey register, either:

- trade their shares on the JSE, which will require such shareholders to dematerialise their shareholding. For further information regarding the steps to be taken to trade on the JSE, please contact the Company's South African Transfer Secretaries, Computershare Investor Services (Pty) Limited at the address or on the telephone number below;
- trade their shares on the NYSE by converting their shareholding to American Depositary Receipts ("ADRs"). For further information regarding the steps to be taken to trade on the NYSE, please contact AngloGold's Depositary Bank, Bank of New York Mellon at the address or on the telephone number below; or
- remain on the Jersey register and be migrated, on the date of closure of the Jersey register, to the Company's shareholder register in South Africa and be listed on the JSE.

Shareholders on the Jersey register who wish to trade their shares on the GhSE or the ASX should speak to their broker.

The Company is aware that Redmayne-Bentley Stockbrokers may be able to assist UK resident individuals holding certificated shares on the Jersey register with dematerialising their shareholding to allow such shareholders to trade (sale only) on the JSE. Any shareholder who is interested in utilising this service should contact Matthew Burke or Colin Day of Redmayne-Bentley Stockbrokers either by telephone on 01132006400 or by email at southafricandealing@redmayne.co.uk.
