Sydney Airport appoints new Chief Financial Officer

Sydney Airport is pleased to announce that Hugh Wehby, currently the Head of Strategy and Capital Projects, has been appointed to the role of Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective today.

Mr Wehby has undertaken multiple airport transaction and asset management roles in Australia, Europe and other international markets. Prior to that, he held investment banking roles based in both Australia and the United Kingdom. Mr Wehby joined Sydney Airport in 2011 and was integral in delivering the minority acquisitions, structural simplification and ATO settlement, leading to a transformation of the business in 2013.

CEO Kerrie Mather said, "We are delighted to welcome Hugh to the Executive Committee, where his experience and track record of delivery will ensure a strong contribution to the ongoing growth of Sydney Airport. It is pleasing to have appointed an internal candidate to the role of CFO, following an extensive local and international search that attracted a significant number of high calibre candidates."

Mr Wehby holds a Bachelor of Economics (Hons) from the University of Sydney.
