FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
26 NOVEMBER 2014

EBET MAKES SIGNIFICANT MARKET GAINS IN VICTORIA WORTH APPROXIMATELY $3 MILLION

eBET Limited (ASX: EBT) ("eBET") announces that, further to the AGM, it has been selected as the preferred gaming technology provider by two of the largest management groups in Victoria, Momentum Gaming and Specialised Gaming Services (SGS). The opportunity is estimated to be worth approximately $3 million in systems sales revenue.

Momentum Gaming and SGS, manage a combined total of 2,250 EGMs across 38 venues, both have selected eBET as the preferred provider of Gaming Systems and Business Intelligence technologies across the respective groups. With the combination of Momentum Gaming and SGS, plus a number of individual venues, eBET expects to generate systems sales value of between $2.9 million and $3.2 million, commencing from 2H FY15 with annual recurring revenues of between $550,000 and $650,000.

Mr Ken Carr, eBET's CEO and Managing Director, said: "This is a great result for eBET and confirms our position as the preferred independent systems provider in the Victorian market. Victoria, as Australia's third largest gaming market, is a key element of our national expansion strategy.

Having previously announced an agreement with the Mercury Group, we have now grown our systems footprint to over 86 venues across over 4100 gaming machines. We are confident that we can continue to expand our footprint in Victoria beyond these significant signings."
