Close of Prospectus Offer and Appointment of Director

The Board of Republic Gold Limited (soon to be renamed Big Un Limited) is pleased to announce the appointment today of Brandon Evertz to the Board of the Company. The Company also advises that the current prospectus offer will also close today as stated previously. After final mailed application forms have been received the Company will lodge formal announcements in relation to the prospectus offer and advise allocations.

Brandon, 20, is the co-founder and significant shareholder of Big Review TV Limited ("BRTV"), a company to be acquired by Republic Gold in parallel to the completion of the prospectus offer and following approval of readmission of the Republic as Big Un Limited on the ASX.

As stated in the prospectus, Brandon is currently an Executive Director of BRTV as well as Business Development Manager. Brandon conceived the video production, hosting and review platform that is the core the BRTV business.

Focusing on his passion for video, Brandon set himself a challenge in 2012 to create a unique internet based business concept that not only leveraged internet usage trends but incorporated a business model with clear revenue streams. Brandon has placed himself at the sharp end of the business and been personally responsible for trials of the BRTV business model, video direction and production and business development."

Brandon brings to the Board an in depth knowledge of the business and the insight and affiliation with the youth market that will drive the success of the business and especially the usage of the Mobile Video App.

As stated in the prospectus, on relisting, Andy Corner and Sonia Thurston (CFO and Director of Communication respectively of BRTV) will also join Ray Shorrocks and David Hannon on the Board of Big Un Limited. Current Directors Peter Wicks, David King and Mark Gillie will resign once the transactions complete.
