

Commerce Commission completes inquiry into plasterboard supply arrangements

Auckland, 22 December 2014 –

Fletcher Building has today been advised that the Commerce Commission will not be taking any action in relation to the plasterboard supply arrangements between Winstone Wallboards and building supplies merchants. The Commerce Commission's decision is the result of an investigation which commenced in September 2013.

Fletcher Building chief executive officer Mark Adamson said:

"We are pleased with this outcome and believe the result reflects the focus Winstone Wallboards has on servicing its customers with quality products made here in New Zealand by great people".
