Dear Shannon

Discovery Metals Limited – Voluntary Suspension Request

As discussed, Discovery Metals Limited (Discovery Metals) requests that an immediate voluntary suspension be granted by ASX with respect to Discovery Metals' securities (ASX code : DML).

In accordance with ASX Listing Rule 17.2, Discovery Metals provides the following information:

1. The voluntary suspension is requested pending a further update regarding the status of discussions relating to the provision of interim funding and in relation to an update on discussions that have been in progress with Cupric Canyon Capital LP (as announced to ASX on 2 December 2014) in relation to a potential transaction.
2. Discovery Metals wishes the voluntary suspension to remain in place until the earlier of Discovery Metals making the announcement described, or the commencement of trading on Friday 13 February 2015; and
3. Discovery Metals is not aware of any reason why the voluntary suspension should not be granted.

Yours faithfully

Kerry Parker
Company Secretary
