REVIEW OF OPERATIONS

On 17 November 2006, Robert Whitton of Lawler Partners was appointed Administrator of the Company, then known as Green X Global Limited. Mr Whitton has subsequently moved to William Buck Business Recovery Services (NSW) Pty Ltd. On 13 April 2007, he was appointed Deed Administrator. He ceased to be Deed Administrator of the Deed of Company Arrangement on 9 November 2011.

On 13 April 2007, a Deed of Company Arrangement was executed. That Deed provided for the resolution of creditors' claims and the recapitalisation of the Company with the intention of securing requotation of the Company's securities on ASX.

On 7 June 2011, the shareholders of the Company approved all the necessary resolutions required for the recapitalisation proposal to proceed.

On 7 June 2011, shareholders, by special resolution approved the change of name of the Company from Green X Global Limited to Mazu Alliance Limited. The change of name took effect when ASIC altered the details of the Company registration on 17 June 2011.

The Deed of Company Arrangement to which the Company was subject was effectuated on 9 November 2011. The recapitalisation of the Company pursuant to the terms of the Deed of Company Arrangement has proceeded, which work was performed by the GXG Acquisition Trust.

The Company is undertaking the development of Mazu City, raising additional capital and taking steps to have its securities reinstated to quotation on ASX.

As part of the development of the business, Mazu Alliance Limited obtained control over Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co. Ltd. The former shareholders of that company were issued shares in

Directors' report

Mazu Alliance Limited as consideration for the acquisition of all of the outstanding share capital of the company, and control of the business and all of the assets including the ownership of the site is now with Mazu Alliance Limited.

This business combination has been accounted for by applying the acquisition method. The business combination has been accounted for from the date that control was attained, being 7 November 2011. The board of directors had a registered valuer prepare a valuation report on the assets acquired. The valuation report stated the assets were valued at RMB 365,508,480 ($55,883,544) as at 7 November 2011. Of this amount, $23,664,129 (of $55,883,544) has been booked to the accounts of Mazu Alliance Limited as a gain created by the negotiations of the contract and land usage agreement with the Chinese government, together with a related deferred tax liability of $7,099,239 on that $23,664,129. The remaining $32,219,415 (of $55,883,544), together with a related deferred tax liability of $8,054,854 on that $32,219,415, were part of the assets and liabilities purchased by the issue of 104,915,083 fully paid ordinary shares in Mazu Alliance Limited in exchange for 100% of the shares of Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co. Ltd.

The consideration of 104,915,083 fully paid ordinary shares in Mazu Alliance Limited transferred in the business combination described above acquired $32,219,415 of property assets, less a deferred tax liability of $8,054,854, leaving net property assets of $24,164,561, together with a further $1,077,501 of other net assets, making a total of $25,242,063 in assets acquired from Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co. Ltd. The 104,915,083 fully paid ordinary shares of Mazu Alliance Limited had a fair value of $14,244,749 based on management's assessment of shares of the Company at the time of issuance. No goodwill on acquisition has been recognised. A gain on acquisition and consolidation amounting to $10,997,314, together with a corresponding deferred tax liability of $3,299,194, has been recognised in the accounts.

Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co. Ltd has engaged Zhangpu Wushi Palace of Queen of Heaven Administrative Committee (the Committee) to manage the day-to-day operation of the existing Wushi Palace of Queen of Heaven Temple. The Committee has the right to pay all operational costs from the revenue received. The arrangement requires that any net profit from the operation is to be remitted to Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co. Ltd on a timely basis. Operations are still at an early stage and there have not been net profits to date. This is not anticipated to change prior to the comprehensive commercialisation of the temple and other Mazu City operations, which commercialisation activities shall only become sufficiently advanced following future capital raising activities by the Company.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES Basis of preparation

This general purpose financial report for the half year reporting period ended 31 December 2011 has been prepared in accordance with the Accounting Standard AASB 134 Interim Financial Reporting and the Corporations Act 2001.

This interim financial report does not include all the notes of the type normally included in an annual financial report. Accordingly, this report is to be read in conjunction with the Annual Report for the year ended 30 June 2011 and any public announcements made by Mazu Alliance Limited during the interim reporting period, in accordance with the continuous disclosure requirements of the Corporations Act 2001. The accounting policies adopted in this interim financial report are the same as those policies applied in the 2011 Annual Report.

The Company has adopted all of the new and revised standards and interpretations issued by the Australian accounting standards board that are relevant to its operations and effective for the current period. This adoption has not resulted in any changes to the Company's accounting policies and has no effect on the amounts reported in the current and prior periods.

As part of the development of the business, Mazu Alliance Limited obtained control over Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co. Ltd. The former shareholders of that company were issued shares in Mazu Alliance Limited as consideration for the acquisition of all of the outstanding share capital of the company, and control of the business and all of the assets including the ownership of the site is now with Mazu Alliance Limited.

This business combination has been accounted for by applying the acquisition method. The business combination has been accounted for from the date that control was attained, being 7 November 2011. The board of directors had a registered valuer prepare a valuation report on the assets acquired. The valuation report stated the assets were valued at RMB 365,508,480 ($55,883,544) as at 7 November 2011. Of this amount, $23,664,129 (of $55,883,544) has been booked to the accounts of Mazu Alliance Limited as a gain created by the negotiations of the contract and land usage agreement with the Chinese government, together with a related deferred tax liability of $7,099,239 on that $23,664,129. The remaining $32,219,415 (of $55,883,544), together with a related deferred tax liability of $8,054,854 on that $32,219,415, were part of the assets and liabilities purchased by the issue of 104,915,083 fully paid ordinary shares in Mazu Alliance Limited in exchange for 100% of the shares of Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co. Ltd.

The consideration of 104,915,083 fully paid ordinary shares in Mazu Alliance Limited transferred in the business combination described above acquired $32,219,415 of property assets, less a deferred tax liability of $8,054,854, leaving net property assets of $24,164,561, together with a further $1,077,501 of other net assets, making a total of $25,242,063 in assets acquired from Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co. Ltd. The 104,915,083 fully paid ordinary shares of Mazu Alliance Limited had a fair value of $14,244,749 based on management's assessment of shares of the Company at the time of issuance. No goodwill on acquisition has been recognised. A gain on acquisition and consolidation amounting to $10,997,314, together with a corresponding deferred tax liability of $3,299,194, has been recognised in the accounts.

Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co. Ltd has engaged Zhangpu Wushi Palace of Queen of Heaven Administrative Committee (the Committee) to manage the day-to-day operation of the existing Wushi Palace of Queen of Heaven Temple. The Committee has the right to pay all operational costs from the revenue received. The arrangement requires that any net profit from the operation is to be remitted to Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co. Ltd on a timely basis. Operations are still at an early stage and there have not been net profits to date. This is not anticipated to change prior to the comprehensive commercialisation of the temple and other Mazu City operations, which commercialisation activities shall only become sufficiently advanced following future capital raising activities by the Company.

Total	RMB 307,858,480

In assessing the relative contributions of the parties, the board apportioned 50% of the combined commercial and residential land value to Mazu Alliance Limited, and 50% to Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co Ltd. As such, the amount apportioned to each entity was RMB 153,929,240.

NOTE 3

Segment Information

The consolidated group was only operating in the construction and operation of religious shrines and ancillary religious activities in China during the half year.

NOTE 4

Contingent Liabilities

The Company did not have any contingent liabilities at 31 December 2011 or 31 December 2010 except for those listed below.

The GXG Acquisition Trust has expended $870,000 excluding GST on office, travel and personnel expenses that has not been brought to account for the Company. The amount owed to GXG Acquisition Trust of $724,055 as a current liability is due and will be repaid out of the capital raising to be conducted by the Company. The amount of $870,000 will only be paid if the capital to be raised by the Company exceeds $5,000,000 in total.

On 7 June 2011, the shareholders of the Company approved the payment to the GXG Acquisition Trust of a success fee of 5% plus GST and disbursements on all capital sums raised on behalf of the Company prior to requotation on ASX. On 15 June 2011, the Deed Administrator on behalf of the Company entered into an agreement with the GXG Acquisition Trust for the payment of the success fees approved by the shareholders. At acquisition value, the success fee payable on the acquisition of the temple assets is $2,761,513. This amount may rise or fall under the terms of the contract. GXG Acquisition Trust has advised that other than $151,350 plus GST, it currently does not intend to claim the balance of this amount prior to the Company raising sufficient capital to meet the obligation. Accordingly, the Company has only made provision for payment of $151,350 plus GST of this amount at this time. GXG Acquisition Trust has advised that it would seek payment of this amount in the future at the following rates: nil from the first $5,000,000 raised; a reduction in the obligation if more than $5,000,000 is raised at the rate of 30 cents per dollar raised up to a total raising of $9,000,000; and a reduction in the obligation if more than $9,000,000 is raised at the rate of 43 cents per dollar until the full obligation is discharged.

NOTE 5

Events after Reporting Date

Mazu City

On 17 September 2012, the Company announced that construction of the expanded temple complex and other elements of Mazu City had commenced.

On 17 September 2012, the Company announced that of the 3,600 private shrines to be constructed in Mazu City, the Company already has signed preliminary agreements with 280 Mazu congregations in Taiwan for each of them to lease a private shrine at Mazu City. Each temple will subscribe for shares in the Company and enter into a 70 year lease of a private shrine during which time they will pay lease and management fees, and also organise for their congregants to visit Mazu City.

The Mazu City site now has 7 temples built or under construction.

Announcement of proposed capital raising

On 1 November 2013, the Company announced that it would be seeking to raise capital through a public offering at $2.25 per share in 2014.

Interfaith programme

On 8 January 2014, the Company announced that to strengthen the Company's operations in the development of its 3,600 private temples and cultural halls, it was forming key strategic partnerships with aligned Taoist and Buddhist faiths. In furthering this strategy, the Company is appointing internationally recognised religious dignitaries as advisers to the Company. The Company announced that Mr Taochen Chang had been appointed as the Company's Taoist Chief Adviser commencing on 1 January 2014.

Mr Chang is the 'Heavenly Master', a title originating with the Eastern Han Dynasty. The position of 'Heavenly Master' is allocated to a religious head of the Taoist movement. Taoism has influenced Southeast Asia for over 2,000 years and has also spread internationally. Mazu is a deity in Taoism. In each generation, the position and title of 'Heavenly Master' was bestowed by the emperor of the time. The position has been passed through 64 generations, and Mr Chang, a 64th generation descendant of the family, is the current Heavenly Master. He has an extensive group of followers, and is recognised in Taiwan, Southeast Asia and internationally. Mr Chang is an expert in Taoist affairs and religious worship rituals.

On 27 November 2014, the Company announced that it had appointed Lama Tsewang Rigzin as the Company's Chief Buddhist Adviser to advise the Company on various Buddhist affairs. Lama Tsewang is the religious leader of the Tibetan Buddhism Nyingma Sect.

Lama Tsewang has studied Buddhism law at Zha Na Temple (in Changdu, Tibet), Yarchen Vddiyana Meditation Monastery (in Sichuan, China), and Larung Gar Five Sciences Buddhist Academy (in Sichuan, China). Lama Tsewang is the current abbot of the Zha Na Temple in Gongjue County, in the Changdu Prefecture of Tibet. This is a significant Buddhist temple with over 200 Buddhist lamas and grounds exceeding 800 hectares that include schools, an Institute of Buddhist Studies and an orphanage. Lama Tsewang is a frequent traveller across China to propagate Buddhism within the Han nationality. He has followers across the world, and is a notable humanitarian. He and his lamas frequently participate in earthquake and disaster relief operations, and raise donations for these causes.

Debtors

The largest debtor of the Company owed RMB 9.65 million (AUD 1.89 million) to the Company, and this debt was settled during the first half year of 2015 financial year, by way of transferring the ownership of a proportionate quantity of Maotai liquor to the Group. In the Company's opinion, the value of this stock has a realisable value of at least the carrying value of the debt.

Share Subscription Agreement

The Chief Executive Officer of Enjoyer Co Ltd, Mr Jianqiang Zhang, in his own right entered into a subscription agreement with the Company for shares in the Company to the value of RMB 60 million. The Company, via a subsidiary, also entered into a construction contract with Enjoyer Co, Ltd. In the event that Mr Zhang did not complete the subscription agreement, the Company was entitled to terminate the construction contract. As it transpired, Mr Zhang did not complete the subscription agreement and the Company did terminate the construction contract.

Construction Contract

The Company's subsidiary, Zhangzhou Wushi Tourism Development Co Ltd, entered into a contract with Enjoyor Co Ltd for construction of some elements at the Mazu City site. Pursuant to the construction contract, Enjoyer Co Ltd was required to pay a construction bond of RMB 5.6 million (AUD 1.1 million), which sum was paid. In the event of successful completion of the construction contract, Enjoyer Co Ltd would be entitled to the return of the bond. In the event that the contract was not successfully completed, the bond would be forfeited by Enjoyer Co Ltd to the Company.

The contract was subject to the total compliance of its CEO, Mr Jianqiang Zhang, with the terms of a share subscription agreement with the Company to subscribe for shares to the value of RMB 60 million (AUD 11.73 million) in the Company. Mr Zhang did not comply with the share subscription agreement. Accordingly, the Company terminated the construction contract and became entitled to the RMB 5.6 million construction bond, which it received. However the RMB 5,6 million remains as part of the other payables in the reporting period.

MAZU ALLIANCE LIMITED ABN 45 077 226 183 AND CONTROLLED ENTITIES INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REVIEW REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF MAZU ALLIANCE LIMITED

We have reviewed the accompanying half-year financial report of Mazu Alliance Limited, which comprises the consolidated condensed statement of financial position as at 31 December 2011, the consolidated condensed statement of profit or loss, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, consolidated condensed statement of changes in equity, and consolidated condensed statement of cash flows for the half-year ended on that date, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information and the directors' declaration.

Directors' Responsibility for the Half-year Financial Report

The directors of Mazu Alliance Limited are responsible for the preparation of the half-year financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards (including Australian Accounting Interpretations) and the Corporation Act 2001 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the half-year financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the half-year financial report based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Auditing Standard on Review Engagement ASRE 2410: Review of a Financial Report Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity, in order to state whether, on the basis of the procedures described, we have become aware of any matter that makes us believe that the half-year financial report is not in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 including: giving true and fair view of Mazu Alliance Limited's financial position as at 31 December 2011 and its performance for the half year ended on that date, and complying with Accounting Standard AASB 134: Interim Financial Reporting and the Corporations Regulations 2001. As the auditor of Mazu Alliance Limited, ASRE 2410 requires that we comply with the ethical requirements relevant to the audit of the annual financial report.

A review of a half-year financial report consists of making enquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope that an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards and consequently dose not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Independence

In conducting our review, we have complied with the independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001. We confirm that the independence declaration required by the Corporations Act 2001, which has been given to the directors of Mazu Alliance Limited, would be in the same terms if provided t to the directors as at the time of this auditor's review report.
