Cyclone Pam not expected to affect TOWER in the Pacific Islands

TOWER Limited (NZX/ASX: TWR) advises that it does not expect to be affected by Cyclone Pam in the Pacific Islands.

TOWER has a long-standing presence in the Pacific Islands with representation in seven territories including the Solomon Islands and Fiji, both of which have been affected by the storm. The company does not have any exposure in Vanuatu.

Chief Financial Officer Michael Boggs said today that TOWER did not expect to be impacted by storm damage in the territories in which it operates but remained on standby to assist its customers who may be affected by Cyclone Pam's arrival in New Zealand.

TOWER said its thoughts were with all those impacted by the storm, reportedly the biggest seen in the Pacific for 30 years.
