Update on payment of the final instalment on Meridian shares

18 May 2015

Meridian advises that Computershare has received funds relating to over 98% of the outstanding instalment receipt amounts due by investors in Meridian. In accordance with the process outlined in the Instalment Receipt Trust Deeds, amounts received will continue to be processed, with the first transfer of shares to investors who have paid in cleared funds taking place on Thursday. A further announcement regarding this transfer of shares will be made on Thursday, along with an announcement of the subsequent steps in the process.
