APPOINTMENT OF CHAIRMAN OF AUDIT AND RISK COMMITTEE

Academies Australasia Group Limited (ASX:AKG) is pleased to announce that Mr Bill Say Mui Foo, an Independent and Non-Executive Director of the Company, has been appointed Chairman of the Audit and Risk Management Committee, succeeding Dr John Schlederer. The appointment is with effect from 17 July 2015.

Dr John Schlederer, Chairman of the Company, continues as a member of the Audit and Risk Management Committee, together with Non-Executive Director Mr Chiang Meng Heng.

Mr Foo has a MBA from McGill University and BBA from Concordia University. He was recently appointed Lead Independent Director and Audit Chairman of Mewah International Inc, which is listed on the Singapore Stock Exchange. Mr Foo is a professional director and advisor to various companies including Chairman of Unigestion Asia. His considerable international business experience includes: Non-Executive Director of International Enterprise Singapore, where he chaired the Audit Committee, Non-Executive, Independent, Director of Temasek Life Sciences Ventures and Non-Executive Director of two companies listed on the Singapore Exchange, including as Chair of the Audit Committee.

Mr Foo also has been recognised for his contribution to education and the community when, in November 2013, he was awarded an honorary doctorate from James Cook University.
