

MOV Corporation Limited

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE POLICIES

Securities Trading Policy

1. Introduction

This Securities Trading Policy and the procedures set out below to provide guidance to the Directors, the Company Secretary and employees of MOV Corporation Limited ("Company"), and their Associates, when Dealing in the Company's Securities taking into account the size, nature and stage of development of the Company and the obligations under the Corporations Act not to Deal in the Company's Securities whilst in possession of Inside Information.

2. Policy on Trading in Company Securities

The Directors, the Company Secretary and employees (or their Associates) of the Company:

- must not Deal in any Security of the Company while in possession of Inside Information;
- must not engage in short term trading of any Securities of the Company;
- must seek approval in accordance with the procedure set out below prior to Dealing in any Securities of the Company;
- must not trade during the Closed Period except in Exceptional Circumstances.

3. Dealing in Company Securities

Subject to the requirements of the Corporations Act and the policy set out above, a Director, the Company Secretary or employee, or their Associate, may:

- Deal in any Security of the Company provided that the person does not have information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information in relation to the Company's Securities;
- not Deal or procure another person to Deal in any Security of the Company if he or she has information that he or she knows, or ought reasonably to know, is Inside Information in relation to the Company's Securities;
- not, except in Exceptional Circumstances, Deal in any Security of the Company within 5 days prior to the release of:
 - the half-yearly financial report to ASX;
 - the annual financial report to ASX; and
 - a prospectus for the offer of equity securities in or other capital raising by the Company ("Closed Period");
- not enter into a transaction (whether through the use of derivatives or otherwise) which limit the economic risk of participating in any equity based remuneration scheme; and
- not engage in any short term dealing in or short-selling of the Company.

4. Permitted trading

This Policy does not prohibit Dealing in the Company's Securities in the following circumstances:

- transfers of Securities already held into a superannuation fund or other saving scheme to a Director, the Company Secretary or employee when he or she is a beneficiary;
- transfers of Securities where there is no change in beneficial ownership;
- an investment in, or trading in units of, a fund or other scheme (other than a scheme only investing in the securities of the entity) where the assets of the fund or other scheme are invested at the discretion of a third party;
- where a Director, the Company Secretary or employee is a trustee, trading in Securities by that trust provided the Director, the Company Secretary or employee is not a beneficiary of the trust and any decision to trade during a Closed Period is taken by the other trustees or by the investment managers independently of the Director, the Company Secretary or employee;
- undertakings to accept, or acceptance of, a takeover offer;
- trading under an offer or invitation made to all or most of the security holders, such as, a rights issue, a security purchase plan, a dividend or distribution reinvestment plan and an equal access buy-back, where the plan that determines the timing and structure of the offer has been approved by the board. This includes decisions relating to whether or not to take up the entitlements;
- the exercise (but not the sale of securities following exercise) of an option or a right under an employee incentive scheme, or the conversion of a convertible security, where the final date for the exercise of the option or right, or the conversion of the security, falls during a Closed Period; and
- trading under a non-discretionary trading plan for which prior written clearance has been provided in accordance with procedures set out in the trading policy and where:
 - the Director, the Company Secretary or employee did not enter into the plan or amend the plan during a Closed Period;
 - the trading plan does not permit the Director, the Company Secretary or employee to exercise any influence or discretion over how, when, or whether to trade; and
 - the entity's trading policy does not allow for the cancellation of a trading plan during a Closed Period other than in exceptional circumstances.

5. Approval to be sought before Dealing in Securities

Directors, the Company Secretary and employees must receive approval for any proposed Dealing in the Company's Securities as follows:

- the Chairman must inform and receive approval from another Director prior to undertaking a transaction;
- a Director, (other than the Chairman), must inform and receive approval from the Chairman (or, if not available another director) prior to undertaking a transaction; and
- Employees and the Company Secretary must inform and receive approval from the Chairman (or, if not available, from another Director), prior to undertaking a transaction.

It is intended that a request will be answered within 48 hours however no Dealing is to occur until clearance has been obtained.

6. Notification of Trading in Company Securities

Directors must notify the Company Secretary of any Dealings in the Company's Securities within two business days of such Dealing including those Dealings in Securities not registered in the Directors name but in which the Director has a Relevant Interest. Details to be provided include the date of the change, the number and class of the Securities subject to the change and the nature of the change, for example on-market transfer. The Director will also provide details of the consideration payable in connection with the change, or if a market consideration is not payable, the value of the Company Securities the subject of the change.

7. Exceptional Circumstances

Except where there is a matter about which there is Inside Information in relation to Company Securities, the Chairman (or 2 Directors in the case of the Chairman) may give clearance during a Closed Period for a Director, the Company Secretary or employee to sell (but not buy) Company Securities in Exceptional Circumstances.

The Director, the Company Secretary or employee seeking clearance to Deal in the Securities must outline in writing to the Chairman (or 2 Directors in the case of the Chairman) the circumstances of their severe financial hardship or as to why their circumstances are otherwise exceptional and that the proposed Dealing in the Securities is the only reasonable course of action available.

The Chairman (or 2 Directors in the case of the Chairman) will decide if Exceptional Circumstances exist and this decision will be final.

Approval may be withdrawn immediately on notice to the relevant person.

The person granting or withholding approval is not required to give any reason for his or her decision.

8. Policy Extends to Trading in Other Entities

The prohibited conduct under the Corporations Act includes dealings in securities of the Company as well as of other listed companies with which the Company may be dealing (such as the Company's collaboration partners, contractors or customers) where a Director, the Company Secretary or employee possesses "inside information" in relation to that other company.

That is, if he or she is aware of information that is not generally available but which, if it were generally available, a reasonable person would expect it to have a material effect on the price or value of a security, you should not deal in the securities of the companies that it affects. For example, where you are aware that the Company is about to sign a major agreement with another company, you should not buy securities in either the Company or the other company.

9. Breaching the Securities Trading Policy

A breach of the Securities Trading Policy by an employee is serious and may lead to disciplinary action, including dismissal in serious cases. It may also be a breach of the law. Insider trading is a criminal offence which is punishable by fines and imprisonment, or both, and may also lead to civil actions which may result in substantial penalties or compensation being awarded to persons suffering loss or damage due to the insider trading.

10. Further Information

Employees who are unsure about any information they may have in their possession, and whether they can use that information for dealing in the Company's Securities or securities of another entity, should contact the Company Secretary.

11. Definitions

In this Policy on Dealing in the Securities of MOV Corporation Limited:

"Associate" includes nominee companies, spouses, dependent children, family trusts and superannuation funds.

"Company" means MOV Corporation Limited (ACN 090 865 357).

"Deal" or "Dealing" includes any transaction associated with buying, selling or subscribing for a Security.

"Director" means a director of the Company.

"Exceptional Circumstances" means circumstances of severe financial hardship whereby the Director, the Company Secretary or employee has a pressing financial commitment that cannot be satisfied otherwise than by selling the relevant Securities

"Inside Information" is information that if it was generally available would have a material effect on the price or value of the relevant security. For the purposes of this Policy, information is taken to be material or will have a material effect if the information would, or would be likely to, influence persons who commonly acquire securities in deciding whether or not to acquire or dispose of the Company's Securities

"Relevant Interest" a person has a Relevant Interest in Securities if they:

- (a) are the holder of the securities; or
- (b) have power to exercise, or control the exercise of, a right to vote attached to the securities; or
- (c) have power to dispose of, or control the exercise of a power to dispose of, the securities.

"Security" includes shares, debentures, rights, options, employee options, prescribed interests and warrants.