Commentary on Jatenergy 4C

Shareholders will be pleased to note that Jatenergy Limited's (Jatenergy) 4C shows revenue of $18,000 from trading activities and expected to grow significantly in the coming quarters. The increase reflects the company's drive to bring positive cash flows to the company through Fast Moving Commodity Consumer Goods sales (FMCGs). The focus is on exporting Australian health products to China with demand for our products outstripping supply. Jatenergy is working with HealthOne Pty Ltd to source product that is "known" in China to be "real" Australian and not counterfeit. HealthOne is Australia's leading pharmacy access and strategy company. With over 150 employees across Australia, HealthOne is one of a small group of Australian healthcare companies that is growing through innovative positioning of leading consumer health and prescription brands.

"The current collaboration with Jatenergy unlocks the potential for Australian healthcare brands. The growth will be significant and will see the entity as the lead for Chinese/Australian healthcare brand collaboration", said Carl Tuhtan, Director HealthOne Pty Ltd.

Recently the Australian health business Swisse had been acquired by a Chinese company for a record $1.67 billion. Blackmores (ASX: BLK) has also risen on continued increase in sales, mostly for Chinese importers. Jatenergy is actively working in this market to take advantage of the ever increasing Chinese demand.

Jatenergy continues to expand its current offering of health supplements to include toiletries, baby milk formulae and cosmetic lotions. "Using our Chinese marketing and sales set-up coupled with our Australian sourcing network we should continue to build more sales of Australian product, which will be reflective in our future cash flow releases", said Wilton Yao, Director, Jatenergy.

In order to provide great Australian products to China, Jatenergy recently signed a number of supply and/or distribution agreements with some major Australian manufacturers and suppliers and will continue to seek direct support from more Australian major brands and export quality Australian health products, milk powders and food products to China as well as other Asian countries.

The Australian Government has been proactive in bringing Australian product to China having recently signed the Chinese free trade agreement. They recognise that China is Australia's biggest export trade partner having accounted for over 33% of export trade. This builds from trade deals already concluded with Korea and Japan. The most recent is the TPP (Trans Pacific Pact) bring 13 countries together under one agreement including Australia.
