Disruptive Investment Group Limited (ASX: DVI)

BYOjet and JETMAX recognised at World Travel Awards

The Board of Disruptive Investment Group Limited (“DVI”) is pleased to announce that one of its portfolio companies, BYOjet and its proprietary software platform JETMAX, has been awarded with two 2015 World Travel Awards in two categories:

1. BYOjet - Australia's Leading Travel Agency 2015; and
2. JETMAX - Australasia's Leading Hotel Booking Solutions Provider 2015.

These awards are voted on by travel and tourism professionals worldwide. They recognise the commitment to excellence that BYOjet and its JETMAX product have demonstrated over the past 12 months.

DVI Chairman and Non-Executive Director Dr Adir Shiffman stated: “Since launching BYOjet in 2010, Lenny Padowitz and his team have worked extremely hard to achieve its position as Australia’s leading online travel agency.

BYOjet has succeeded in establishing JETMAX to become a cutting edge technology platform, one that provides the travel industry with an innovative point of difference. We congratulate Lenny and his team for the success.”

JETMAX’s technology is offered as a turn-key white-label solution to enable travel agents without an online presence to provide their customers a fully branded and secure online travel service. The JETMAX technology platform currently powers 40 travel sites and the network continues to strengthen and grow each month.
