COCA-COLA AMATIL ANNOUNCES APPOINTMENT OF GROUP GENERAL COUNSEL

Coca-Cola Amatil (CCA) Group Managing Director Alison Watkins today announced the appointment of Betty Ivanoff as Group General Counsel.

An accomplished member of the Australian legal fraternity with around 20 years legal and commercial experience both in-house and with large law firms, Ms Ivanoff joins CCA from GrainCorp Limited where she is currently Group General Counsel and Company Secretary. Prior to commencing at GrainCorp in 2008, Ms Ivanoff was in-house legal counsel for CSR Limited, Walter Construction Group Limited and Sinclair Knight Merz.

"I am delighted to have Betty joining the team at CCA. Betty brings the right combination of legal and commercial skills and her first-hand experience in advising Boards and leaders, positions her to make a great contribution to CCA's Group Leadership Team," Ms Watkins said.

Ms Ivanoff will join CCA in April 2016 and will replace George Forster as Group General Counsel. Mr Forster will remain with CCA until July in a consulting role to ensure a smooth transition to Ms Ivanoff.
