Telstra Commences Selling Iridium GO!® In Australia

World Reach Limited would like to advise the market of the commencement by Telstra of sales of the Iridium GO!® product, manufactured as an OEM product for Iridium Communications Inc., by Beam Communications Pty Ltd, World Reach's wholly owned subsidiary.

The Iridium GO!® product was approved for sale by Telstra in late December 2015 and is now being actively promoted. The product is available through Telstra's national sales channels.

Powered by the world's furthest reaching network, the Iridium GO!® is a compact, rugged and portable device that provides global voice calling and texting messaging solutions for any Android or iOS smartphone. The device also enables enhanced data capabilities offered through optimized apps.

Iridium GO!® will also be sold through the World Reach subsidiary, online satellite phone sales business SatPhone Shop. Please visit the website satphoneshop.com for details.

Yours faithfully
