Review of Operations

The Company recorded a surplus for the half year ended 31 December 2015 of $1,223,114 (2014: $1,341,992).

The surplus resulted from $1,920,805 in tax refunds, one received and another lodged but yet to be received, under the Federal Government's Research and Development ("R&D") Tax Incentive program. The refund was for expenditure in relation to experimental work conducted as part of the Company's on-going studies of the nature of the geology and the mineral potential of the Company's tenements in the Uno Province, in South Australia.

During the period the Company incurred some $1.3 million on exploration activities at the Company's tenements.

The main activities during the half year included:

- Completion of the upgraded Paris Resource estimate; 8.8Mt @ 116g/t silver (50g/t silver cut-off), containing 33Moz silver.
- Extensive review work was undertaken on improving the Paris deposit geological understanding, resulting in the application of a more appropriate geostatistical method for the Paris deposit style.
- Further drilling at Nankivel and Peterlumbo Hill prospects, confirmed skarn and porphyry copper discovery opportunities in the broader Paris minerals system.
- A review of historical drilling results identified nickel sulphide potential in widespread basement ultramafics at the Diomedes prospect, near Paris.
- A detailed magnetic and gravity geophysical survey was flown over the eastern portion of the Morgans tenement, including the 12 Mile prospect to assess the Uno Fault, sub-parallel east-west epithermal veins cutting the basement and associated small bodies of high-level Hiltaba Granite for silver and copper targets. The survey also enabled the assessment of magnetic targets associated with the proposed Archaean basement.
- Mapping and sampling of outcrop and float continued, with targeting guided by soil geochemistry, at the Thurlga JV tenement. Geophysics analysis has identified a number of conductive and resistive bodies in the northern area, within or near to the Uno Fault.
- Significant tenement applications submitted for new copper and nickel prospective areas highlighted by breakthrough magnetotelluric geophysical research. The research indicates a possible deep metal corridor connecting the Olympic Dam IOCG belt with the Uno Province. The new applications are in the geological terrain known as the Stuart Shelf where the new concept has revitalised the copper potential both in the cover and for undiscovered IOCG deposits in the underlying basement.

Auditor Independence

A copy of the auditor's independence declaration as required under section 307C of the $\it Corporations Act 2001$ is attached.

Signed in accordance with a resolution of the Directors.

1. Basis of preparation of half-year Financial Report

This general purpose financial report for the half-year reporting period ended 31 December 2015 has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standard AASB 134 Interim Financial Reporting and the Corporations Act 2001.

This half-year financial Report does not include all the notes of the type normally included in annual financial report and therefore cannot be expected to provide as full an understanding of the financial performance, financial position and financing and investing activities of the consolidated entity as the full financial report. Accordingly, this half-year financial report is to be read in conjunction with the annual financial report for the year ended 30 June 2015 and any public announcements made by Investigator Resources Ltd during the half-year reporting period in accordance with the continuous disclosure requirements of the Corporations Act 2001.

The same accounting policies and methods of computation have generally been followed in this half-year financial report as compared with the most recent annual financial report.

a. Going Concern

The half-year report has been prepared on a going concern basis which contemplates the continuity of normal business activities and the realisation of assets and discharge of liabilities in the ordinary course of business. The ability of the Company to continue to adopt the going concern assumption will depend upon a number of matters including the successful raising in the future of necessary funding through debt, equity or farm-out, or the successful exploration and subsequent exploitation of the Company's tenements. In the absence of these matters being successful, there exists a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern with the result that the Company may have to realise its assets and extinguish its liabilities other than in the ordinary course of business, and at amounts different from those stated in the financial report. No adjustments for such circumstances have been made in the financial report.

b. Comparatives

When required by Accounting Standards, comparatives have been adjusted to conform to changes in presentation for the current financial half-year.

c. New and amended accounting standards

New and revised standards have been issued by the AASB and are effective for the half-year; however there are no material changes to the policies that affect measurement of the results or financial position of the consolidated entity.

d. Fair values

The fair values of the consolidated entity's financial assets and liabilities approximate their carrying value. No financial assets or liabilities are readily traded on organised markets in standardised form.

A review of a half-year financial report consists of making enquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Independence

In conducting our review, we complied with the independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001.

Conclusion

Based on our review, which is not an audit, we have not become aware of any matter that makes us believe that the half-year financial report of Investigator Resources Limited is not in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, including:

- a giving a true and fair view of the consolidated entity's financial position as at 31 December 2015 and of its performance for the half-year ended on that date; and
- b complying with Accounting Standard AASB 134 Interim Financial Reporting and Corporations Regulations 2001.

Emphasis of matter regarding going concern

Without qualification to the conclusion expressed above, we draw attention to Note 1 to the financial statements, which indicates that the Company is dependent on successful future capital raising, external debt funding or finding a farm-in partner in order to be able to continue successful exploration and subsequent exploitation of the Company's tenements. These conditions, along with other matters as set forth in Note 1, indicate the existence of a material uncertainty which may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern and therefore, the Company may be unable to realise its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business, and at the amounts stated in the financial report.
