New investment mandate

APN today announced that it has been appointed by Colonial First State Investments Limited (CFS) as the investment manager for a new Australian listed property securities mandate.

Mr Michael Doble, CEO Real Estate Securities, said “We are delighted to be partnering with Colonial First State to bring APN’s ‘Property for Income’ philosophy and real estate securities expertise to their clients. This appointment reflects our disciplined investment approach that has delivered investors strong and consistent risk adjusted returns over a number of years”.

This mandate is scheduled to commence in the June quarter of 2016 with expected initial funds under management of approximately $50 million.
