Eureka Rockhampton wins Queensland Retirement Village Manager of the Year Award

The Eureka Group Holdings Limited (Eureka) Rockhampton Village management team of Kevin and Mika Humphreys have been awarded the Property Council Queensland Manager of the Year award (MOTY).

The purpose of the MOTY award is to recognise the village manager, staff and residents who work towards the ultimate goal of a successful, happy and harmonious village. This pinnacle award of the industry identifies the excellence of a distinguished retirement village community and the national winner will be announced at the National Retirement Living Summit 2016 in Melbourne in late November.

Eureka Chairman Robin Levison commented, "This is a wonderful outcome for Eureka and well deserved recognition for the efforts Kevin and Mika have put in to create a harmonious and enjoyable village environment for our residents and staff. I wish them all the best for the national award and believe this recognition captures the safe, respectful and enjoyable environment that all Eureka residents across Australia reside in."
