

ASX & Media Release

3 October 2016

STORM EVENT UPDATE

South Australia, including the Eyre Peninsula and Spencer Gulf, experienced significant storm activity from Wednesday 28 September to Friday 30 September.

Clean Seas Tuna Limited (ASX: CSS) advises that despite these adverse weather conditions and electrical and communications outages that lasted until the evening of Friday 30 September, management action and infrastructure designed for such conditions resulted in all staff remaining safe and no damage of any significance was caused to the Company's farm, hatchery, inventory or administrative infrastructure and assets.

Where customer deliveries were impacted, changed arrangements were communicated and customers have been supportive of the Company as it dealt with these circumstances. There has been no material impact on sales.
