ASX/Media Release
Sydney, Australia – 21 June 2016

APPOINTMENT AND RESIGNATION OF DIRECTORS

Indoor Skydive Australia Group Limited (ASX: IDZ) is pleased to announce the appointment to its Board of Kirsten Thomson as a Non-Executive Director.

Kirsten Thomson who joins the Board today has over 20 years' experience in fields of funds management and equities research. She has experience and demonstrated strong success in a broad range of strategic challenges including competing business models, challenging economic cycles and differing and emerging commercial approaches to doing business in Australia and abroad.

Kirsten's extensive experience with listed entities has given her a deep understanding of the essentials of business planning, management of key performance indicators and financial statements. She also has a keen understanding of shareholder governance expectations and the business and investment needs the broking and investment communities require of listed companies.

ISA Group Chairman, Ken Gillespie, said "We are excited about Kirsten's appointment. She brings to our very talented Board a vital set of skills which we feel will greatly enhance our ability to continue to grow ISA Group. Kirsten's considerable experience, and undoubted success in the listed company environment and her strong understanding of the drivers of the investment community will certainly be of great benefit to the Company."

ISA Group also wishes to announce the retirement of Malcolm Thompson from his position as alternative director for Steve Baxter. Steve Baxter does not intend to appoint another alternative director. "We thank Malcolm for his ongoing dedication and hard work supporting the Company, particularly during its formative years, and wish him well for the future" said Ken Gillespie.
