

RESIGNATION OF AUSTRALIAN BASED CFO/COO

October 24th, 2016. Melbourne, Australia.

Respiratory technology company Rhinomed Limited (ASX: RNO) wishes to advise of the resignation and departure of Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Officer Ms. Justine Heath.

The Board of Directors wishes to thank Ms Heath for her invaluable work, support and assistance over the past 18 months. Ms Heath leaves the company in a stronger position and better prepared for the next stage of international growth.

With Rhinomed experiencing increasing growth in the North American market, the company intends to separate the financial and operational roles to enable a greater emphasis on the market opportunities ahead. The company has also recently moved its digital marketing ecommerce capability and resources to the USA to better take advantage of the growing opportunity in the Northern Hemisphere.

The Company will begin a search for the Chief Financial Officer and Chief Operating Office functions and will structure these in a way that will optimise its ability to pursue significant global opportunities.
