NOMINATION OF DIRECTOR – MR R. J. COOPER

Rum Jungle Resources is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Robert Cooper as a Non-Executive Director to the Company's Board with effect 1 July 2016.

Mr Cooper has been nominated to the Board by Rum Jungle Resources' major shareholder, Washington H Soul Pattinson, which now holds 38 percent of the company.

Robert Cooper B.Eng. (Mining), M.Eng.Sc, MAusIMM(CP)

Robert Cooper is a mining engineer with more than 25 years' industry experience, having held leadership roles across a diverse range of commodities, both in Australia and overseas. He has a broad foundation of operating and technical experience in both operations and project development. Robert has previously held leadership positions with BHP Billiton as General Manager of Leinster Nickel Operations within Nickel West, Project Manager of a BHP Billiton-wide project, and as Asset President of Ekati Diamonds in Canada. He more recently held positions with Discovery Metals as General Manager - Operations in Botswana and as General Manager - Development in their Brisbane office. Robert is currently the CEO of CopperChem Limited and also Exco Resources Limited, both of which are 100% owned subsidiaries of the Washington H Soul Pattinson Group of companies.

Mr David Muller, Chairman of Rum Jungle Resources commented that we are pleased to have Rob join us at a time when our focus is now on advancing the company's flagship Ammaroo phosphate project through to a bankable level of feasibility and approvals. His extensive experience in the management of development projects, particularly from his time with BHP Billiton, will be extremely valuable in shaping the company's strategy to develop its portfolio of fertiliser mineral assets.
