

ASX Announcement
7 July 2016

Change of Company name to Birimian Limited

The Board of Birimian Gold Limited (ASX: BGS, or the "Company") is pleased to advise the formal change of the Company's name to Birimian Limited.

This follows approval by shareholders at the Company's general meeting held 17 June 2016, and subsequent receipt of a new Certificate of Registration from the Australian Securities and Investments Commission.

The name change better reflects the diversity of the Company's operations. In particular, the recent acquisition and progress of the exciting high-grade, potential bulk tonnage Bougouni Lithium Project in Mali, which complements Birimian's traditional gold activities in Africa.

Birimian continues to leverage the Company's significant project generation and development capabilities across multiple commodities in West Africa, including advancing the Bougouni Lithium Project and formalising a development solution for the Massigui Gold Project in the near term.

The company's ASX code, registered office and contact details remain unchanged.
