Kabuni Board Changes

Kabuni Ltd (ASX: KBU) ("Kabuni," or the "Company") is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Colm O'Brien to the Board of Directors, effective immediately, following the resignation of Mr Matthew Hehman.

Colm has over 20 year's executive level experience in financial services, management consulting and media industries. He has led ASX listed company Aspermont Limited (ASX: ASP) as CEO and transformed that business from a local mining publication to a global, digitally led resources media business including world leading events.

Colm is currently a Director of Carrington Partners, a management consultancy firm focused on providing practical strategic and executive support, including business growth, cost review and turnarounds, transformational change, acquisition/partnership structures and funding introductions.

Colm also acts as non-executive director of Pacific Star Network Limited (ASX: PNW), an ASX listed media company with market leading niche assets in broadcasting and publishing, including SEN Radio, Frankie Magazine, Smith Journal and Surfing Life Australia

The depth of digital marketplace knowledge, hands on company growth experience and capital markets activities will enable Colm to add immediate and sustained value to Kabuni.

The Company's Chairman, Mr Tony King, commented:

"We are excited to have someone of Colm's calibre and reputation joining the Kabuni team. Colm brings in-depth management consulting and banking experience to the Board and his appointment ensures that the Kabuni growth strategy is fully supported and implemented."

"The Company would also like to express its sincere gratitude and appreciation to Matthew Hehman who has recently relocated to San Francisco, California to pursue other business opportunities. The Company wishes him well with his future endeavours."
