INCREASED DEBT FACILITY

Indoor Skydive Australia Group Limited (ASX: IDZ) is pleased to announce that it has executed documentation to increase its existing corporate debt facility with Westpac Banking Corporation.

The variation to the Business Finance Agreement incorporates an increase to the existing debt facility resulting in a total facility value of $11.15 million. All other elements of the Business Finance Agreement remain unchanged.

The Board of ISA Group continue to identify debt financing as the preferred form of funding for the Company's growth at this time.

ISA Group CEO, Wayne Jones said, "This increase in available debt provides ISA Group with further access to appropriately priced funding to support our construction projects, manage contingencies and act on opportunities as they arise."

"The agreement reflects the confidence of Westpac in the strength of our business and its future growth profile."
