Explanatory Statement

The purpose of this Explanatory Statement is to provide Noteholders with all information known to the Company which is material to a decision on how to vote on the Resolution. This Explanatory Statement should be read in conjunction with the Notice of Meeting of Noteholders. Noteholders are asked to refer to the Glossary at the end of the Explanatory Statement which contains definitions of the terminology used.

1. Resolution 1 – Approval to allow the security trustee to waive default for non-payment of interest

1.1 Background

As at the date of this Notice of Meeting, the Company has 119,422,000 Convertible Notes on issue (each with a face value of $0.05, convertible into one Share, a maturity date of 31 March 2017 and a first ranking security interest over all equity ownership interests in TELA Garwood Limited, LP, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company). The Terms and Conditions includes a requirement to pay interest on a quarterly basis on the last day of the interest period.

The Convertible Notes are secured by the Security Documents entered into by the Company and the Security Trustee as trustee for the Noteholders, dated 25 February 2014. The full security will be extinguished when the Convertible Notes are converted or repaid in full.

On 25 February 2014, the Company and the Security Trustee entered into the Security Trust Deed pursuant to which the Security Trustee agreed to hold all right, title and interest in, to and under the Security Documents on trust for the Noteholders. On 29 December 2015 Noteholders approved the appointment of the Security Trustee to replace the original Security Trustee.

On 21 October 2014, the Company announced to ASX a placement of a total of 60,000,000 convertible notes to the Wyllie Group Pty Limited (Wyllie Group). The convertible notes held by the Wyllie Group are secured by a second-ranking security interest over the Company's interest in the Fairway Project.

In December 2015, the Company sold the Homar #1 well and 100 acres of production leases at the Fairway Project along with 160 acres of undeveloped leases ("Robb Tract"). The sale netted US$981,000 to Target, before costs. In February 2016, the Company appointed Canaccord Genuity as adviser to the divestment of the balance of the Fairway Project. Canaccord is working with Target and its partners to market the Fairway Project and negotiate with counterparties. The recent improvement in the oil price from a low in February 2016 of around US$27/BO WTI Cushing to a trading range recently of US$45 - $50/BO has provided encouragement. Over 24 companies have signed Confidentiality Agreements to gain access to the data room. Bids are currently due by no later than 7 October 2016.

The Company had cash resources at 30 June 2016 of $87,000, of which $80,000 was sourced from loans provided by directors or their associates (the First Directors Loans) on 29 June 2016. At this time the most likely source of additional funding is from the sale of the Company's remaining interests in the Fairway Project. If a favourable outcome from the sale process cannot be achieved in the short term, the Company will be required to seek additional financing and/or seek to restructure the existing Convertible Notes.

Approximately 35 noteholders representing 129,700,002 convertible notes (equating to approximately 72%) have agreed to defer their entitlement to interest (the Deferring Noteholders) through to 31 March 2017. The above figure includes the Wyllie Group's convertible notes, which have a face value of $3 million. The remainder, being 47 Noteholders representing 49,721,998 Notes (equating to approximately 28%) (the Non-Deferring Noteholders) have not agreed to defer interest.

The amount of interest payable to the Non-Deferring Noteholders is approximately $62,000 each quarter and will be due and payable on 30 September 2016 and 31 December 2016. In order to assist the Company to pay its debts as they fall due over coming months, the Company is seeking the authority to defer interest payable to all Noteholders.

Under the Terms and Conditions of the Notes, non-payment of Interest within ten business days of the due date is an event of default. Upon an event of default and whilst it continues, a Noteholder may declare the principal and interest immediately due and payable.

The Security Trustee holds all rights under the Security Documents on behalf of the Noteholders. In the event that the Company defaults under the terms of the Convertible Notes, the Security Trustee, on behalf of the Noteholders, can enforce the security over the equity ownership interests in TELA Garwood. The Security Trustee may only waive breaches of or default under any Transaction Document (which includes the Terms and Conditions) with the prior instruction of the Noteholders obtained via a special resolution at a meeting of Noteholders.

A summary of the terms of the Convertible Notes is set out in Annexure 1 of this Notice of Meeting.

1.2 Effect of the Resolution on Noteholders

The waiver of default, will mean that no action is taken by the Security Trustee in respect of the Company's non-payment of Interest to the Non-Deferring Noteholders on the Interest Payment Dates of 30 September 2016 and 31 December 2016.

Noteholders should be aware that if the resolution is passed, and the Company defaults in the payment of Interest on the Interest Payment Dates of 30 September 2016 and 31 December 2016 in accordance with clause 9.1(a) of the Terms and Conditions, the Security Trustee will be authorised to waive the default and the Non-Deferring Noteholders will not receive the interest payment due on 30 September 2016 and 31 December 2016 until a later date. The Non-Deferring Noteholders will however be entitled to overdue interest at the rate of 12% on and from the relevant Interest Payment Date until the Interest is paid.

There will be no effect on the Deferring Noteholders as they have already agreed to defer the payment of the interest due on the Convertible Notes.

It should also be noted that if Noteholders do not approve this Resolution 1, and the Company is unable to complete an additional capital raising, the Company may be unable to continue trading and the Directors will need to investigate other options for the Company, which may include the appointment of voluntary administrators. The Security Trustee will then take such action as he thinks fit including possibly seeking approval from Noteholders for the appointment of a receiver.

This meeting has been convened at the request of the Company.

1.3 Noteholder approval

Clause 7.3(a) of the Security Trust Deed provides that the Security Trustee must not waive breaches of, or any default under, or otherwise excuse the performance of any obligation of a Transaction Party under, a Transaction Document without the prior instructions of the Noteholders by way of a special resolution.

Under clause 9.14(a) of the Security Trust Deed, Noteholders have the power, by special resolution to, amongst other things, sanction or allow the Security Trustee to:

- (a) waive breaches of, or any event of default under, or otherwise excuse the performance of any obligation of a Transaction Party under a Transaction Document; and

- (b) exercise or refrain from exercising a power, and waive or excuse performance of a Security Document.

Resolution 1 seeks Noteholder approval for the Security Trustee to waive any default by the Company under clause 9.1(a) of the Terms and Condition in the event that the Company defaults in the payment of Interest to the Non-Deferring Noteholders on the Interest Payment Dates of 30 September 2016 and 31 December 2016.

1.4 Directors' recommendation

Chris Rowe, a Director of the Company, holds an interest in Convertible Notes. However, Mr Rowe is a Deferring Noteholder. Therefore, he has no personal interest in the outcome of the Resolution.

The Directors recommend that Noteholders vote in favour of the Resolution.

2. Resolution 2 – Approval to allow the security trustee to amend or vary the Transaction Documents

2.1 Background

The Company had cash resources at 30 June 2016 of $87,000, of which $80,000 was sourced from Director Loans. At this time the most likely source of additional funding is from the sale of the Company's remaining interests in the Fairway Project. If a favourable outcome from the sale process cannot be achieved in the short term, the Company will be required to seek additional financing and/or seek to restructure the existing convertible notes.

In July 2016, Directors or their associates loaned the Company a further $65,000 (the Second Directors Loans). The First and Second Directors' Loans which total $145,000 are secured by an equal second ranking security interest over all equity ownership interests in TELA Garwood Limited, LP. The Company proposes to seek a waiver from ASX to allow this security interest in accordance with ASX Listing Rule 10.1.

In the absence of a sale of some or all of the Company's remaining interest in the Fairway Project, in order for the Company to continue to pay its debts as they fall due over coming months it is likely that additional funding will be required.

It is proposed that any additional funding up to a maximum of $400,000 (Additional Funding) provided after the date of this Noteholder meeting and by no later than 31 March 2017 will be provided a first ranking security interest over all equity ownership interests in TELA Garwood Limited, LP (New First Ranking Security Interest). It is the Company's intention that the Convertible Notes will be subordinated such that the Convertible Notes will be secured by a second-ranking security interest over all equity ownership interests in TELA Garwood Limited, LP.

The proposed minimum terms of the Additional Funding will be as follows:

- Interest rate of 10% pa, payable quarterly but deferred to maturity;
- Penalty interest at the rate of 12% pa on overdue amounts;
- Repayable on 31 March 2017; and
- The Additional Funding is not convertible into securities in the Company,

(Minimum Terms).

It is also important to be aware that some or all of the Additional Funding may be advanced by Directors (or entities controlled by Directors).

Under the terms and conditions of the Notes, the creation of additional security interests requires the prior written consent of the Security Trustee.

The Security Trustee holds all rights under the Security Documents on behalf of the Noteholders. The Security Trustee may only amend the terms of the Transaction Documents with the prior instruction of the beneficiaries obtained via special resolution at a meeting of Noteholders.

2.2 Effect of the Resolution on Noteholders

The approval of this Resolution by Noteholders, will mean that, if the Company obtains Additional Funding on the Minimum Terms detailed in Section 2.1 above, the security which secures repayment of the Convertible Notes will be subordinated and the Convertible Notes will be secured by a second-ranking security interest over all equity ownership interests in TELA Garwood Limited, LP. It should be noted that, subject to the consent of the relevant secured parties, all other existing security interests will also be subordinated. For example, all existing second-ranking security interests shall be subordinated to third-ranking.

Noteholders should be aware that if the Resolution is passed and subject to all other secured parties consenting to their existing security interests being subordinated to third-ranking, the Security Trustee will be authorised to make such consequential amendments or variations to the Transaction Documents as are necessary to enable the Company to grant the New First Ranking Security Interest and for the Noteholders' security to be subordinated to a second-ranking security interest over all equity ownership interests in TELA Garwood Limited, LP.

It should also be noted that if Noteholders do not approve this Resolution 2, the Company may be unable to attract additional funding to continue trading and the Directors will need to investigate other options for the Company, which may include the appointment of voluntary administrators. The Security Trustee may also take such action as it thinks fit, including possibly seeking approval from Noteholders for the appointment of a receiver.

This Meeting has been convened at the request of the Company.

2.3 Noteholder approval

Clause 7.3(c) of the Security Trust Deed provides that the Security Trustee must, if so instructed by the Noteholders by way of a special resolution, amend or vary a Transaction Document.

Under clause 9.14(a) of the Security Trust Deed, Noteholders have the power, by special resolution to, amongst other things, sanction any modification or compromise or arrangement in respect of the rights of Noteholders against the Company and to sanction or allow the Security Trustee to amend or vary a Transaction Document.

Resolution 2 seeks Noteholder approval for the Security Trustee to agree to the creation of additional security interests ranking ahead of the Noteholders in respect of any Additional Funding provided by no later than 31 March 2017, subject to all other existing security interests agreeing to be subordinated to third-ranking.

2.4 Directors' recommendation

Chris Rowe, a Director of the Company, holds an interest in Convertible Notes and therefore does not provide any recommendation in respect of the Resolution.

It is possible that any or all of the Directors or their associates may provide the additional financing and therefore do not provide a recommendation in respect of the Resolution.
