

Greenvale Energy Limited

Refund of Stamp Duty

ASX Release

9 May 2016

Greenvale Energy Limited (ASX: GRV) is pleased to announce the following:

Highlights:

- Refund of stamp duty of $188,886
- Company continues to review assets

Refund of stamp duty from prior year transactions

The Board of Greenvale Energy Limited is pleased to announce that they have received confirmation from the Office of State Revenue that it has been successful in its objection to various transactions that have occurred in relation to its former shale assets in Queensland and as a result, it will receive a refund of $188,886. The refund will increase the Company's existing reserves.

Strategic review

The Board continues to review a number of acquisition opportunities in the mining exploration space and will provide details of any such acquisition as soon as it comes to hand. The above funds will be used to finance any such acquisition.

Contact details

For further information, please contact:

Vince Fayad

Company Secretary

Ph: +61 414 752 804

E: vfayad@pkf.com.au