Shareholder Update: Resignation of Company Secretary

Melbourne, 29 April 2016: MedAdvisor Limited (ASX:MDR) today announces the resignation of Mr Stephen Brockhurst from the position of joint Company Secretary.

Mr Carlo Campiciano, who has jointly held the role since December 2015, will continue as MedAdvisor's sole Company Secretary.

Mr Campiciano is a highly experienced accountant, having spent significant time working in industry as a CFO, as well as 27 years in consulting to businesses in areas including taxation, finance, operations, and planning; strategic, operational and financial.

Mr Brockhurst, a former Director of Exalt Resources, became joint Company Secretary following the Exalt Resources acquisition of MedAdvisor in December 2015.

MedAdvisor CEO, Mr Robert Read, said: "I would like to acknowledge Mr Brockhurst's experience and invaluable guidance during MedAdvisor's transition from a private to a public company, and wish him well in his future endeavours."

About MedAdvisor

MedAdvisor is an Australian software systems developer focused on addressing gaps in personal medication adherence. MedAdvisor's free app connects to pharmacy dispensing systems to automatically retrieve medication records and drive an intelligent training, information and reminder system to ensure correct and reliable medication use. It was the most downloaded pharmacy or medication-related app in Apple and Android stores in Australia in 2014 and 2015, and is being used by more than 130,000 Australians. A quarter of all Australian pharmacies subscribe to the MedAdvisor software platform. By January 2016, MedAdvisor's convenient Tap-to-Refill feature had resulted in one million prescription refills by Australian consumers.

MedAdvisor has established sales and marketing partnerships with private health insurer, BUPA, and has training and service contracts with top tier global pharmaceutical companies, including GSK, AstraZeneca, UCB, Apotex and Arrow Pharmaceuticals. MedAdvisor has a Health Association Partnership with Epilepsy Queensland.
