BUSINESS ANNOUNCEMENT

A2A GN LTD (NSX: A2A) is pleased to advise of the intention to constitute a new 100% owned subsidiary company for the purposes of launching a Security Token Offering (“STO”). Funds raised through the STO will be utilised for the continued development and expansion of A2A’s leading e-commerce a2a platform, which is largely based on the same distributed ledger technology as the proposed STO.

To assist, A2A engaged independent professional STO advisers. Their report, together with market research conducted by A2A, has satisfied the A2A board of the viability of the STO and complimentary nature to the a2a platform.

Further details will be announced in due course.
