NZX announces appointment of Head of NZX Agri business

NZX is pleased to announce the appointment of Jeremy Anderson as Head of NZX Agri effective 1 March 2017.

Jeremy will lead NZX's reshaped Trans-Tasman agri business which comprises of data and analytics businesses in New Zealand and Australia, along with the New Zealand Farmers Weekly publications business.

Jeremy joins NZX with broad experience across New Zealand and Australia's agri sectors. He currently leads Vodafone New Zealand's efforts in the agribusiness sector. Previous roles have included as New Zealand country manager and as regional sales manager for an Australian based fertiliser company, as well as work as an independent agronomy consultant in Australia.

This key appointment to NZX's agri business follows the recent sale of NZX's New Zealand magazine publishing business and the Clear Grain Exchange in Australia.
