Wellington Airport Announces New Director Alison Gerry

Wellington International Airport Limited (WIA) is pleased to announce the appointment of Alison Gerry to the WIA Board with effect from 1 February 2017.

Chairman Tim Brown welcomed Alison Gerry to the Board and the experience she will bring from her extensive career in finance and treasury and as a professional company director.

Ms Gerry has more than 20 years' experience working for both corporates and financial institutions in Auckland, Sydney, Hong Kong, Tokyo & London in trading, finance and risk roles.

Ms Gerry has been a professional company director since 2007 and is currently a director of Infratil, Spark, Vero and NZX. Ms Gerry has a first class honours degree in Management Studies from Waikato University and a Masters of Applied Finance from Macquarie University.

"We also want to recognise and thank Peter Coman for his time as a director of Wellington Airport and in particular the valuable contribution he has made on the airport's significant capital developments," said Tim Brown.

The appointment of Ms Gerry and departure of Mr Coman will keep the number of directors of WIA at six.
