

GEOOP LIMITED (NZX:GEO)

31 May 2017

GEO understands that the shareholdings associated with one of the Company's co-founders, Brendan Cervin, have been acquired by institutional and professional investors over the past weeks.

Further, the Company is pleased with the progress towards listing on the ASX and has launched a new website (geo.tools) which better represents the Company's strategy of developing software applications to improve business productivity.
