MAINFREIGHT LIMITED

Mainfreight advises that a change in leadership has been made for its Asian business. Cary Chung, who previously headed up Mainfreight's operations in China, replaces Michael Lofaro who led the Asian business from early 2008. Michael has taken early retirement, and leaves with the Company's gratitude for his leadership and contribution over many years.

Cary has been with Mainfreight for six years, initially as Regional Director Sales & Supply Chain, and in 2016 he took on the role as General Manager China. He is well placed to foster our culture and disciplines in the Asia region, and will carry on the growth and development of our business across China and Southeast Asia.
