Change on Senior Leadership Team at Orion Health

AUCKLAND, 9 February 2018 - Orion Health Group Limited (NZX:OHE) today announced a change to its senior leadership team. Teri Thomas, who leads Orion Health's Rhapsody business, is leaving for personal reasons.

As part of the organisational change, Wayne Oxenham, a seasoned global executive returns to New Zealand from running the Orion Health U.S. business as President, North America and will step into the role.

Teri has helped build on the global success of Orion Health's Rhapsody integration solution for healthcare systems. Orion Health thanks Teri for her contribution to the continued growth of the Rhapsody business in a competitive and complex global market.
