Jeremy Moore appointed Chief Development Officer

Jeremy Moore has been appointed Chief Development Officer at Ryman Healthcare.

Jeremy joined Ryman Healthcare's development team in 2012 and has been Acting Chief Development Officer since May 2019.

Ryman Healthcare Chief Executive Gordon MacLeod said he was delighted to confirm Jeremy's appointment.

"Jeremy has done a great job since he took over in an acting capacity last year and I'm thrilled to confirm his appointment," Mr MacLeod said.

"Our mission is to build as many Ryman communities as we can so that more people can benefit from the Ryman experience. Jeremy and his development team will play a crucial role in this growth and I'm looking forward to continuing to work alongside him."

About Ryman: Ryman Healthcare was founded in Christchurch in 1984 and owns and operates 36 retirement villages in New Zealand and Australia. Ryman villages are home to more than 11,400 residents, and the company employs 5,700 staff.
