

David Harrington to leave IAG

IAG today announced that Group Executive David Harrington has decided to leave the company at the end of March 2020.

Mr Harrington has been with IAG for more than eight years, first joining as General Manager Corporate Office in its CGU business. He has been a member of IAG's Group Leadership Team since 2015 as Group Executive of Strategy and Corporate Development.

IAG Managing Director and CEO Peter Harmer said: "David has been a central figure in helping us map out the corporate strategy we have been delivering against for the past four years and leaves at a time when we are well-positioned to enter our next era.

"I'd like to thank David for his leadership, guidance and support. We wish him every success for the future."

This release is authorised by IAG's Disclosure Committee.
