Covid-19 Update

Argosy Property Limited (Argosy or the Company) has disaster recovery procedures in place. Following the Covid-19 outbreak, Argosy has undertaken a range of additional initiatives to protect staff, tenants and contractors to ensure a 'business as usual' approach in the current environment.

Protecting staff, tenants and contractors

Argosy takes the health & safety of all its stakeholders seriously. The Company has taken a view on Covid-19 based on the latest advice provided from the Ministry of Health (MOH) and other government agencies. To date, Argosy has taken the following precautions including:

- Establishment of a dedicated internal Covid-19 team to monitor the situation and any contingencies;
- Modification of its disaster response plans to suit the specifics of Covid-19;
- Cancellation of all non-essential travel;
- Successfully completed working from home procedures, which allow for Argosy's cloud-based systems to be accessed;
- Provision of self isolation guidance, particularly with respect to people returning from recent international travel;
- Direction of staff, tenant and contractors to appropriate expert information;
- Development of protocols for dealing with Covid-19 exposures.

Argosy has communication plans in place to ensure staff, tenants, the Board and the NZX are kept up to date.
