

CORRECTION OF INFORMATION

Property for Industry Limited (PFI) advises that an article was published on a New Zealand news media website regarding the release of its results, which could be misleading. The article also appeared in a COVID-19 live news feed. The article has now been removed.

The information contained in the article is a re-publication of PFI's 2019 full year results announcement. However, due to the fact that it has been published during September 2020, it could be misconstrued as a new announcement.

PFI would like to clarify that it has not released any new Material Information to the New Zealand Stock Exchange (NZX) or the media today, and confirms that it intends to release its results for the six months ended 30 June 2020 to the NZX before the market opens tomorrow on Friday, 4 September 2020, as previously advised.
