

ABANO EXECUTIVE TEAM CHANGES

Abano Healthcare Group Limited (NZX: ABA) has announced changes to its executive team.

Rhys Clark has resigned as Chief Financial Officer, effective from 23 October 2020. Brian Fouhy has been appointed as interim Chief Financial Officer on a contract basis with the role to be reviewed following the completion of the Scheme of Arrangement process. Brian was previously CFO for Airwork Holdings and has also held senior finance roles with KiwiRail Group and KPMG.

In addition, following a review of the executive team, a decision has been made to disestablish the roles of Chief Operating Officer, held by Australian-based COO, Dennis Surlan, as well as that of General Manager Business Development, held by Andy Tapper.

Dennis will finish up with the company in the next few months, with Andy Tapper leaving Abano on 25 November 2020.

Both Lumino The Dentists in New Zealand and Maven Dental Group in Australia have strong leadership teams in place who will continue to focus on delivering excellent patient care and experience for Lumino and Maven patients.

The company thanks Rhys, Dennis and Andy for their contributions to the business and wishes them well in their future endeavours.
