

Pushpay announces Director resignation

Auckland, New Zealand | Redmond, Washington; Colorado Springs, Colorado, US – 4 November 2020 (NZT)

Pushpay Holdings Limited (NZSX:PPH, ASX:PPH, ‘Pushpay’ or ‘the Company’) announces that the Board has accepted the resignation of Peter Huljich as a Director of the Company, effective 31 December 2020. Peter’s Alternate, Christopher Huljich, will also cease to hold office from that date.

Pushpay’s Chairman, Graham Shaw, “On behalf of the Board and management I would like to sincerely thank Peter and Christopher for their invaluable contribution and commitment to Pushpay over the past seven years. The Huljich family has been immensely supportive of the business since their initial investment in 2013, participating in many of the Company’s subsequent capital raising rounds and providing a funding line at an early stage. With a strong start-up SaaS and technology investing background, Peter and Christopher have been instrumental in shaping the Company into what it is today and positioning us for continued success. We are extremely grateful for their leadership and support, and wish them all the best with their future endeavours.”

Peter Huljich said, “We have enjoyed participating in the Pushpay journey over the past seven years. I am very proud of the teams in New Zealand and the US, and the incredible amount of social good that the business continues to facilitate in communities all around the world. The outlook for Pushpay remains positive and we look forward to seeing the Company continue to deliver on its strategy of becoming the preferred provider of mission-critical software to the US faith sector. Pushpay’s Board comprises a talented and experienced group of individuals, and with the recent appointment of two highly-qualified Independent Directors, we now feel this is a natural time to step away to allow them to drive continued success. We wish the Board, management and all the associates at Pushpay all the very best success for the future.”
