Compliance with US Executive Order 13959

In November 2020 the United States government issued Executive Order 13959, which prohibits U.S. persons from engaging in any transaction in publicly traded securities in Communist Chinese military companies (as well as certain related securities) and which will first become effective on 11 January 2021. We are taking steps as required to comply with the order to the best of our knowledge and belief in consultation with Legal counsel and industry groups. We continue to monitor this matter to assess any potential impact or actions needed, as facts and circumstances continue to evolve.
