

29 April 2021

Hallenstein Glasson Holdings Limited

Appointment Executive Director

The company announces the appointment of JAMES GLASSON to the Board of Directors, from 29 April 2021, as an Executive Director.

James joined Glassons Australia in 2013, after completing a Master of Arts; Fashion Retail at the London College of Fashion (University of Arts). Taking on various roles within the business over the last 8 years, including Brand Manager, General Manager, Acting National Retail Manager, James was appointed CEO of Glassons Australia in October 2017. James has been instrumental in the brand's success by overseeing and driving growth for the business across all sectors including product, eCommerce, marketing and operations. He also manages a team of over 750 to ensure an unparalleled company culture.

Chairman of Directors, Warren Bell. Said "This is a testament to James' passion and strategic vision for the business, Glassons Australia has seen significant growth in the last few years, including during this difficult trading period due to Covid-19, under his leadership. James' hands-on work ethic and diverse skillset makes him a great asset to the board."

Further information:

Warren Bell

Chairman of Directors

+64 21 220 7254