Senior manager resignation – ASB Bank Limited

Ms Robyn Worthington, ASB's Executive General Manager People, has announced she will be leaving the bank to return to her home in Australia.

ASB CEO Vittoria Shortt noted Ms Worthington's significant contribution to ASB and thanked her for her leadership of the ASB People division, notably during the Covid-19 pandemic when Ms Worthington led ASB's People response. On behalf of ASB, Ms Shortt wishes Ms Worthington well for the future.

Ms Worthington will remain in her role while a decision is made regarding her replacement.
